

Name: _____

Date: _____

Words to know:

composed (composite; made of more than one principle), discursively (proceeding to a conclusion through reason), ratify (give formal consent to)

ANGELIC KNOWLEDGE:

Divine Knowledge	Angelic Knowledge
God is His _____, His _____ of knowing, and the object of His knowledge. God is _____.	For angels, their intellect is a _____ of their spiritual nature. Angels are _____.

Angelic Knowledge	Human Knowledge
Fully _____ and intuitive angels have no intrinsic potency to _____ knowledge over time. They already have _____ of their ideas at _____.	Progressive and _____ humans acquire knowledge through their _____ over the course of their lives.

Hierarchy of Angelic Knowledge:

- There are ranks of _____ among the angelic choirs.
- The nearer an angel is to God, the more perfectly he shares in the simplicity and comprehensiveness of _____ knowledge.
- Higher angels know _____, with fewer _____, and to a greater degree of _____.

ANGELIC CHOICE AND DESTINY:

Angelic Intellection:
Angels do not _____ from one point to the next, but rather _____ both principle and conclusion in one intuitive burst of thought.

Angels were created in grace and were created for the loving _____ of God.

Beatific Vision: The loving vision of God in heaven, given to the elect, that cannot be lost or diminished.

Some angels chose _____ God and some chose _____.

The former we call _____ and the latter we call _____.

GOD	ANGELS	MAN
Doesn't achieve His end by any movement, since He _____ His end.	Angels are the kind of thing that achieve their _____ by one movement. An angel who chooses for God is beatified upon performing _____ charitable act.	Comes to his end by many _____.

Creaturely Choice: All rational creatures can _____, because only God is His own _____ by nature. The created will, by contrast, is not its own _____.

Angelic Sin:

- NOT _____, passion, or _____
- Inordinate or defective _____
- Candidates for Angelic Sin: _____ or _____
- In either case, the angelic sin amounts to a rejection of the dispensation of _____.
We call it _____.

In the first moment of their existence, the angels knew themselves as created to the _____ of God and they cleaved to God by the force of their nature.

In the second moment of their existence, they had the opportunity to _____ that situation. Choosing that situation would mean preferring _____ to themselves, affirming that they are of God in the way that God wills. Some made this choice; others _____.

Comprehension question: How is the angels' choice for or against God different from our own? How is it the same?