

Name: _____

Date: _____

Words to know:

composite (made up of two or more parts), materialism (the belief that only matter is real)

Powers: Powers are like the instruments by which the soul interacts with _____.

VEGETATIVE POWERS:

The three vegetative powers work toward one end: to _____ and hand on the fullness of bodily _____.

SENSORY POWERS:

Sense Cognition (Sensation)

Five Exterior Senses

- 1.
2. Hearing
3. Smell
- 4.
- 5.

Four Interior Senses:

1. Common Sense
- 2.
- 3.
4. Estimative Power

Sense Appetite:

The sense appetite _____ the animal towards the _____ that it needs for bodily _____.

Concupiscible Power:

- Love
-
- Pleasure
-
- Aversion
-

These passions have the _____ good or evil for their object.

Irascible Power:

-
-
- Daring
- Fear
-

These passions have the _____ good or evil for their object.

Locomotion:

Basically, animals _____.

INTELLECT AND WILL:
The highest powers, found only in rational animals, are _____ and _____. Intellect and will actually perfect our exercise of the lower powers, assuming them into a _____ life.
Intellect:	Will (Rational Appetite):
The intellect is the seat of _____. _____. With the intellect we can grasp the very natures of things as _____. Ordered to the universally _____.	The power that _____ us to what is apprehended (understood) as _____ or fitting. The object of the will then is the _____ good. Ordered to the universally _____. The will is also the seat of our _____.

Ultimately, we are made for the vision of _____ who is universally _____ and _____. And we will be satisfied with nothing less than _____.

Comprehension questions:

1. If our intellect and will are powers, is there a way to make them more powerful or more effective? What are some ways one could strengthen or sharpen one's intellect to make it more effective at finding truth?
2. What are some ways one could strengthen or sharpen the will to make it more effective at seeking the good?