

5.63

HOPE

Name: _____ Date: _____

Words to know:

primordial (original), diminishment (the act or process of decreasing)

God's Beatitude	God just _____ subsisting _____.
Angelic Beatitude	Angels come to their beatitude by _____; they need make a single _____ and they reap forever the harvest thereof.
Human Beatitude	Man comes to his end by _____ movements. In order to attain to our end, we need a virtue that anchors us in the _____ that God gives. . . so God in His generosity gives us Himself in grace and outfits us with the virtue of _____ to conduct us to our heavenly homeland.

Passion of Hope:

- By hope we are moved to pursue an arduous _____, which we apprehend as _____ to obtain.
- A movement of the _____ power—that power that supplies the appetitive energy for difficult goods.
- Located in the _____.

Theological Virtue of Hope:

Hope understood as a theological virtue specifically: this concerns our _____ _____, eternal life with God.

God infuses the theological virtue of _____, raising our minds and hearts to Him, so that we can respond generously to His offer of beatitude. Thus, hope is first the work of _____ and it principally concerns the _____.

Hope: A graced _____ that God will give eternal _____ to me and to those whom I _____ because He is _____ and _____.

We believe and trust that _____ is made available to us because Christ has undone the primordial _____ and unbarred the gates of _____ to us.

Hope is rooted in the _____ of God and the promise of _____.

It imparts a kind of _____ flowing from the certitude of faith.

It steels our nerves to withstand _____, goads us lest we coast, and _____ us lest we give up.

It fortifies the irresolute by giving a foretaste of the permanence and perfection of _____.

Imperfection:

Approaches God from a _____; cannot yet _____ of its object.

Will there be hope in heaven? _____

SINS AGAINST HOPE:
Presumption	Despair
Cavalier _____ that God will save me regardless of whether or not I _____ and _____ with His grace. Sets aside the uncertainty of the way in favor of the certainty of the _____	The _____ that God's promises apply to _____ or a fear that e Hwill deny _____ even to the repentant. Sets aside the uncertainty of the way in favor of the certainty of the _____

The gift of the Holy Spirit that perfects hope: _____
This fear perfects hope by imparting to the soul a _____ for what aids us and what hinders us in our _____ of the vision of God. For there is nothing so difficult to attain nor anything so worthy of the effort as the unfailing _____.

Comprehension question: Explain how hope is the mean between presumption and despair.

