

LEARN THE VIRTUES

SCOPE AND SEQUENCE

PART 1: GETTING STARTED

Video 1: An Overarching Look at Education in Virtue (6:00)

- Why education in virtue is needed
- Connections with neuroscience and social-emotional learning
- The goal of education is union with God

Video 2: Overview of the Educator's Guide (3:13)

- A walk-through of the four sections of the Educator's Guide

Video 3: Why Educate in Virtue? (17:23)

- EIV offers a synthesis of who we are in God and our response to Him
- The human story: creation, fall, redemption in Christ
- Life in Christ: Grace, virtue, and gifts of the Holy Spirit

PART 2: LEARN THE VIRTUES

Title (Run time) Educator's Guide	Know It	Related Gifts of the Holy Spirit and Virtues	Guard It	Sins Against
FAITH (19:46) Educator's Guide, pp. 23– 27	Faith allows us to see Rooted in the mind and the heart Faith makes it possible to believe what is true Faith is a dynamic relationship Divine Revelation: Received and guarded in the Church Deposit of Faith: Sacred Tradition, Magisterium	UNDERSTANDING KNOWLEDGE	First Commandment Prayer Sacramental life Study A life of charity, chastity, truth	Voluntary doubt Incredulity Heresy Apostasy Schism Harmed by capital sins: –Lust –Gluttony
HOPE (18:01) Educator's Guide, pp. 35– 39	Certainty that our destiny is supernatural Holds us strong and roots our entire life in God. Certainty and strength to work for Heaven Desire for God Prevents discouragement	FEAR OF THE LORD Related virtues: Magnanimity, Humility	Trust in God's Mercy Prayer Sacraments, especially Holy Mass and Confession Practicing the presence of God	Presumption Despair Pride
CHARITY (16:50) Educator's Guide, pp. 49– 57	Enables us to love God and neighbor as self and to love as God loves, supernatural and divine The heart is the center of the person and place of decision Charity is the binding force holding all virtues together; the form of all virtues Growing in Charity, one grows in all the other virtues Purifies the human heart and orders our loves	WISDOM Related virtues: Mercy Beneficence/ Kindness, Almsgiving/ Generosity, Fraternal Correction	Sacraments Prayer	Hatred of God Acedia Ingratitude Indifference Envy Prideful conflict Folly
PRUDENCE (15:22) Educator's Guide, pp. 59– 71	Knowing what to do, when, and how Empowers reason Enables us to apply moral principles in the situation Orders other virtues 3 parts of prudential act: –Good Counsel –Good Judgement –Command	COUNSEL Related virtue: Docility	Cultivate good habits Pray for Prudence Think rightly Listen to people who have Prudence Plan ahead Practice Docility Pause, take time	Impulsivity Inconsideration Procrastination Negligence

LEARN THE VIRTUES

SCOPE AND SEQUENCE - ADULTS

Title (Run time) Educators Guide	Know It	Related Gifts of the Holy Spirit and Virtues	Guard It	Sins Against
JUSTICE (21:57) Educator's Guide, pp. 73-95	Ability to judge/ know/ give to God and others what is their due Seeing with the eyes of the heart what is due to another Justice is about relationship Particular justice _____ Distributive justice Commutative justice Justice orders speech	PIETY Related virtues: Respect, Religion	Think about the other person's needs Practice fairness THINK, is it... True Helpful Inspiring Necessary Kind	Acting unfairly Disrespecting others, culture, race Favoritism Corruption Perjury Causing bodily harm and self-harm Property damage Gossip Defamation Detraction Ridicule Bullying Cursing or wishing evil against someone False attribution Exaggeration Exposing secrets Attributing bad intention to good actions Pride
FORTITUDE (18:08) Educator's Guide, pp. 97-110	Enables one to endure difficulties, obstacles, pain for the sake of good. Makes Christian martyrdom possible for everyone Helps us maintain the pursuit of good Helps us resist temptation	FORTITUDE Related virtues: Magnanimity, Patience, Perseverance	Practice Magnanimity Grow in Patience Practice Perseverance	Cowardice Recklessness Acedia
TEMPERANCE (19:30) Educator's Guide, pp. 111-129	Enables us to be moderate/ balanced in our use of created goods Work at it, engage in good habits Moderates our desire and enjoyment of food, drink, human sexuality, entertainment and leisure to better pursue the truest good Temperance brings freedom Helps us detach from created goods to attach more to Jesus Christ. Brings great inner peace and freedom	FEAR OF THE LORD Related virtues: Chastity, Purity, Meekness, Modesty, Humility, Gratitude	Vigilance Practicing the smaller virtues	Excess or Overindulgence Insensitivity Insensibility Pride