

from EducationinVirtue.com

As you introduce the new expectations, take the time to educate your students in what each virtue “looks like” and “sounds like,” describing the virtuous behavior you would like to see in your classroom. Use the language of the virtues when you need to redirect or have a more serious discussion with a student about inappropriate behavior.

Lastly, encourage your students to pray as they practice the virtues. “God gives the growth” (1 Cor. 3:7). The saints are marvelous examples of heroic virtues, we can reach out to them as we follow Jesus Christ as His disciples.
